OUR CAPTAIN

All life is but a voyage, or a succession of voyages, each presenting its own problems, its own triumphs, and each opening up new vistas of adventure and understanding. So it has been on your voyage through the public schools — you have had your moments of trouble and doubt, your periods of elation and triumph. School has broadened your vision, increased your interests, revealed new goals, and presented fresh opportunities and challenges. You have known disappointment and elation, discouragement and exaltation, triumph and defeat. Through each successive experience, from each new adventure and challenge has come growth — mental, physical, moral, and spiritual, or social. Ere long you will realize that your high school days have but set the pattern for the days and years that lie ahead. The lessons learned, the strengths developed will ever be present to aid and guide you. Your school, your teachers, and parents trust that they have been sufficient to sustain you in your new voyage.

Earl a. Master

Five wins and three defeats is the way the Baby Knights' record tallies in the 1950 season. After a bad start by losing to Pottsville, 18-0, they soon caught on fire and had a winning streak of five games, only to be stopped by Lancaster, 26-6. In the string of the five games, with Phoenixville, Allentown, Shillington, Coatesville, and Muhlenberg High, they scored the most impressive win with Shillington High, 38-0. In the remaining two games with Lebanon High and Hershey Industrial, the Junior Varsity failed to score a single point.

For the first time, Coaches Reese and Dunkelberger had the able assistance of Bill Horine, a new member of the R. H. S. coaching staff.

Coach-Mr. Russell Boyles

Reading's thinclads, under the ble coaching of Russ Boyles, have at another winning season under eir belts. The season was high-left by the winning of the District No. 3 P. I. A. A. championship own for the third straight year. The hustling lads of Reading capted third place in the conference and eighth in the state meet.

Reading's speedsters ran over insdale, William Penn, Mount armel, and Lebanon; and came rough with a one point decision for Coatesville. The harriers were versed by Pottsville and Wilimsport.

Extra cheers go to Kenny Lawnce, Ralph Graffius, John Body, nd Dale Gaul, whose outstanding cords deserve extra merit. Here's oping that next season will be an en better one for Coach Boyles' arriers.

For the second straight year, Read High's bastketball team proved to be an predictable squad. The Red Knights finish last in the first half of the Central Paragraph of the second half, they placed first with a and 2 log. The hoopsters from Read opened the campaign with a victory of Emmaus; however, Bethlehem then defead Reading by a very convincing 61-36 cours Simon Gratz fell prey to Reading by a magin of 3 points in a 48-45 tilt, and All town powered their way to a 82-48 romp the latter's court. Reading won only 2 their next 9 games, these being with Lancaster and Hershey Industrial. Overbrook, William Penn, Bethlehem, John Harris, York, L

anon, and Steelton, all took Reading into camp.

The court-men of Reading got on the winning side again by defeating Lancaster 54-49. Victory was short-lived as Allentown of William Penn defeated the Knights. The Reading boys finally found themselves, and in the following games lost only to Lebanon they defeated John Harris, Hershey Industrial, York, and Steelton. This brought to a close Reading's regular season and set the steep for the Central Penn Playoff game between Lebanon and Reading at the Hershey Sports Arena. A large crowd of Reading fans whome disappointed because Lebanon won an exciting game, 52-42, and brought to an end the 1950-51 basketball season.

Bruce Weaver, for the second year, led the scoring parade with 210 points on 84 field goals and 42 fouls, even though he plain only 17 games because of a leg injury. Big John Jankans came in second with 181 points, on 68 field goals and 45 foul shots.

The 1950-51 hoop campaign concluded Coach Dunkelberger's sixth year as head mentor at R. H. S. with 90 victories and defeats. Coach Dunkelberger's record shows that he has his heart and interest in developing good teams for Reading and deserves the credit given him.

CHEERLEADERS

Sponsor-Mrs. Myrtle Boltz

Give a cheer! Yes, a good loud cheer to a grand group of girls who deserve our praise. Both the varsity and junior varsity teams were drilled by Mrs. Myrtle Boltz, with Ann Lou Rohrbach leading the varsity and Barbara Swartz and Marion Muntz leading the junior varsity. In fact, the effort of the teams in games played abroad and at home would not have been so successful if it had not been for these peppy cheerleaders who urged them on through smooth and rough seas.

These eight pep leaders faithfully supported our teams throughout our voyage.

That tender moment at the G.A.A. Christmas Party when Mrs. Urich was presented her farewell gift.

Bedlam breaks loose as Reading High scores again!

THESE SENIORS ORDER THEIR ANNIVERSARY CALENDARS TO RECORD ALL THEIR TREASURED A FAMILIAR SCENE IN THE BOYS' GYM IS THE HALF-TIME FEATURE OF THE EXCITING PERFORMED BY OUR BAND ON ALUMNI DAY "CAUTION, MEN AT WORK." OUR RELIABLE SHOP BOYS ARE HARD AT WORK PAINTING SCENERY. Christmans AILK SHAKES 20 STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS SHOW THEIR CHRISTMAS SPIRIT BY TRIMMING A TREE FOR THE YULE SEASON. EVERYBODY BUYS ICE CREAM AT THE FAIR.

MR.DODGE, PRESIDENT OF CROLL & KECK, CONGRATULATES PHILIP MATHIAS, WINNER OF THE LAKELAND SPORTSWEAR FOOTBALL POPULARITY POLL CONTEST HELD THROUGHOUT READING AND BERKS COUNTY.

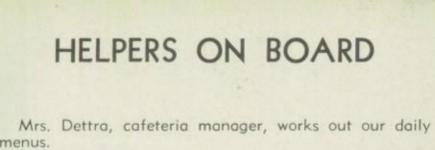

Mr. Cardin, what's up?

A group of students are watching Reading High's newest feature, an "honest to goodness" television set.

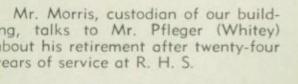

Working earnestly, the Arxalma Staff is trying to meet that deadline.

Anchors Aweigh!—that after-school fun at City Park.

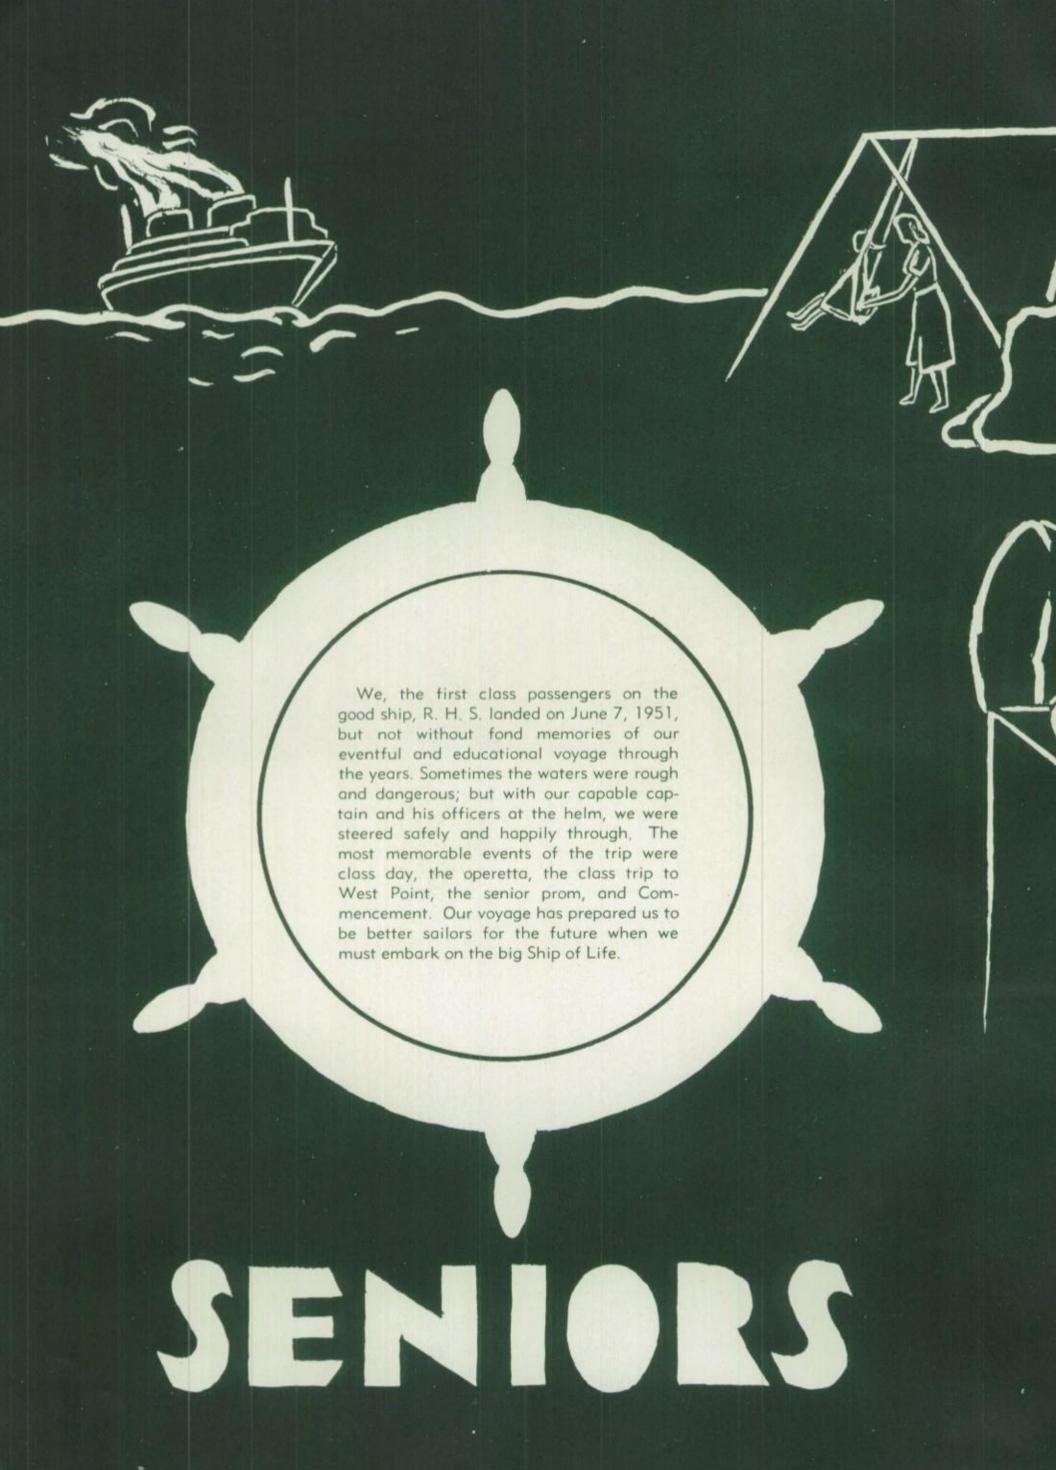

Relaxing for a moment from their endless duties are Mr. Goddard, Mrs. Leake, and Mr. Hawk of the janitorial staff.

Our faithful traffic director, Mr. Stufflet.

OUR NAVIGATORS

TO OUR SPONSORS:

The class of 1951 wishes to thank you, Our Navigators, who have so faithfully managed the senior affairs on our voyage. Although there were times when we seemed unappreciative, we were really always grateful for your guidance; and now, we eagerly take this opportunity to say Thank You for everything.

TO THE CLASS OF 1951:

May success, your goal, be attained by the members of the class of 1951! May you be successful not only in one of the many vocations, businesses, or professions you may choose for your life's work, but also in your work in your home, church, government, and similar institutions.

Education, your weapon, will be most effective if it is based not solely on a mastery of some physical science or particular skill. A sympathetic understanding of man's relationship to man, cutting through the many prejudices of race, nationality, religion, and economic status, is increasingly important if success is to be attained in our modern world.

Sincerely,

Horman C. Brillhart

SENIOR PROM

A moonlight night, dreamy music, and your one and only; this adds up to the most outstanding event of our voyage—the Senior Prom. This gala affair was held at the Reading Country Club on Friday, June 1.

Ascending the steps to the Ball Room are Luther Heiser and Nancy Kapp, George Seyfert and Ann Stalnecker, David Young and Jean Zehner, David Cope and Suzanne Best, Albert Stallone and Barbara Stauffer.

This is a lovely way to spend an evening.

And another of our activities. . . . . .

is our Senior Class Trip. On Thursday, May 31, the seniors and their guests boarded this boat for a trip up the Hudson to visit the West Point Military Academy.

PERSONALITY

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

PAUL THOMPSON NANCY PECK

DONALD BALTHASER DORIS ZERBEY

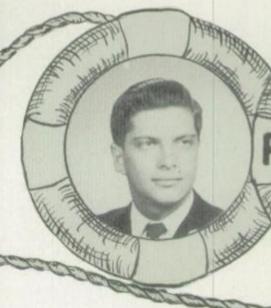

FRANCIS SCALZI NANCY HIMMELREICH

MOST PLEASING PERSONALITY

MOST STUDIOUS

BEST LOOKING

THOMAS MacCALLUM PAT FELDENZER

OPERETTA

The senior class operetta, "Sweethearts", was presented on the evenings of April 26 and 27 in the ship's lounge. Here are some snapshots taken during rehearsal for that production.

The major leads were filled by Mary Jo Hoffman and George Seyfert.

Dame Paula, ably portrayed by Mary Ann Bettler (center) gives some motherly advice to her six daughters: Regina Stevens, Joan Miller, Mary Jane Cassel, Anna Fisher, Barbara Beaver, and Dorthea Sheetz.

In the supporting roles were Rhodella Noll and Walter Rowles.

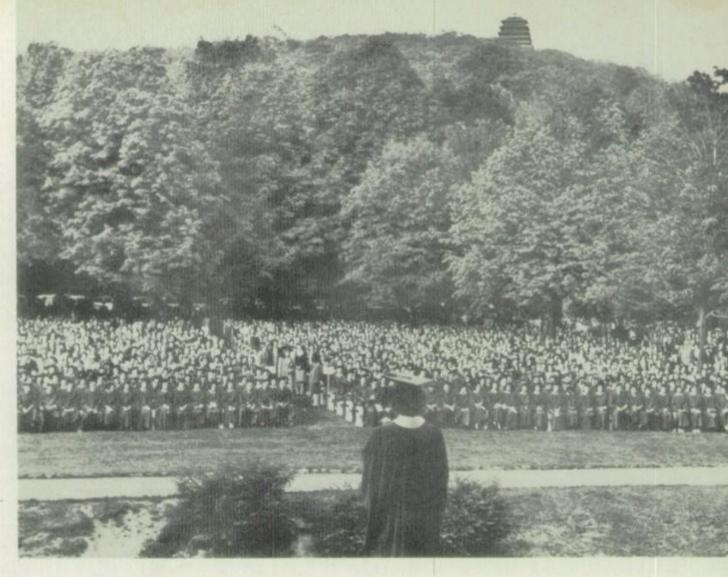

A dash of humor was given to "Sweethearts" by Roger Rachman, Charles Kenney, Francis Scalzi, and Paul Thompson.
